

A bill to be entitled
An act relating to administration of trusts; amending s. 736.0505, F.S.; revising provisions to permit exclusion from creditor claims of a total of two annual exclusion gifts upon lapse of a power of withdrawal from a trust; providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 736.0505, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

736.0505. Creditors' claims against settlor ---

(1) Whether or not the terms of a trust contain a spendthrift provision, the following rules apply:

(a) The property of a revocable trust is subject to the claims of the settlor's creditors during the settlor's lifetime to the extent the property would not otherwise be exempt by law if owned directly by the settlor.

(b) With respect to an irrevocable trust, a creditor or assignee of the settlor may reach the maximum amount that can be distributed to or for the settlor's benefit. If a trust has more than one settlor, the amount the creditor or assignee of a particular settlor may reach may not exceed the settlor's interest in the portion of the trust attributable to that settlor's contribution.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b), the assets of an irrevocable trust may not be subject to the claims of an existing or subsequent creditor or assignee of the settlor, in whole or in part, solely because of the existence of a discretionary power granted to the trustee by the terms of the trust, or any other provision of law, to pay directly to the taxing authorities or to reimburse the settlor for any tax on trust income or principal which is payable by the settlor under the law imposing such tax.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) During the period the power may be exercised, the holder of a power of withdrawal is treated in the same manner as the settlor of a revocable trust to the extent of the property subject to the power.

(b) Upon the lapse, release, or waiver of the power, the holder is treated as the settlor of the trust only to the extent the value of the property affected by the lapse, release, or waiver exceeds the greater of the amount specified in:

1. Section 2041(b)(2) or s. 2514(e); or

2. Section 2503(b), and if the donor was married at the time of the transfer to which the power of withdrawal applies, twice the amount specified in section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2010.
